

BRO'S TRIP

The outdoors are calling you and your best guy friends. Lake Guntersville is the spot to head to. From full adventure to fires by the water, you'll never want to go back to reality.

Day 1

Pitch a tent! Lake Guntersville is home to hundreds of campsites. Whether you want to rough it in a tent or bring a camper. There are spots by the lake and some not. If camping isn't your thing, try out one of the many cabins at Lake Guntersville State Park or Kudzu Cove.

Axe throwing! Drive south to Boaz to see who's got the best aim. Yonah Axe is new and a ton of fun for everyone. If you've never thrown an axe, you will be able to learn from instructors. Enjoy some wings, pizza and beer while you're there too.

Day 2

Hook, line & sinker! Rent a boat (if you don't have one) and head out on the beautiful lake. Lake Guntersville is the number two bass lake of the decade by Bassmaster, so your chances of catching some monster and photo worthy fish are high! Make a contest with your friends to see who can catch the biggest bass or catfish.

Grub time! After a long day of fishing, y'all are probably starving and looking for some filling food. Crawmama's is the place to go to satisfy all of your seafood needs. They offer live music and some of the best crayfish you'll ever put in your mouth.

Brewskies with ya broskies! Main Channel Brewery is a must stop in town. They got everything your taste buds desire from ales to IPAs to their seasonal fruity options. You can even grab a growler to go to drink when you get back home.

Day 3

Thrill seekers only! Before you go, you got to take part in a ziplining tour through Lake Guntersville State Park. You will be zooming fast through trees with great views of the lake down below.
